

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

MISS CLAIRE GULLAUME, who, playing with Mr. C. C. Chase, made the highest score at the meeting of the Stay-at-Home Whist Club last week, was its agreeable hostess last Monday evening.

Two tables played, those present being Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Tyler, Mrs. C. W. P. Brock, Mr. John Travers, Mrs. E. S. Smith, Miss Lucy Quarles, Miss Gullauume and Mrs. A. M. Tyler. Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Smith were winners of the evening. The club will meet next Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Travers, and Mrs. E. S. Smith. The club is thought probable that Admiral and Mrs. Harrie Webster, who have been enjoying a delightful Northern trip, will be back and participate in the pleasures of the game.

McKenzie—Thomas.
The Daily Press, of Newport News, said yesterday:
"Miss Mary Thomas, who has lived here since August 1st, left yesterday for Richmond, where to-day she will wed Mr. Arthur McKenzie, a traveling salesman for a hardware concern of North Carolina. Miss Thomas and Mr. McKenzie met in Baltimore nine months ago. The young couple will make their home in Charlotte, N. C."

Porter—Fudge.
Captain and Mrs. C. A. Fudge, of Tazewell, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Hetty, to Dr. Hobbs Porter, of Middleboro, Ky. The wedding will be celebrated October 7th.

Ren—Dunstan.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., September 15.—Mr. George Wallace Ren, a prominent young business man of Petersburg, and Miss Mary Willoughby Dunstan, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dunstan, were married this morning at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock by the Rev. C. E. Woodson, of St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church. The bride, gowned in a traveling suit of blue, with hat and gloves to match, and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses, entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away.

Miss Mabel Jackson, a cousin of the bride, beautifully rendered the wedding march, while Miss Nettie Dunstan, her sister, was maid of honor. She was attired in white Paris muslin, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. J. Edward Rowan acted as the groom's best man.

Garrett—Ewers.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., September 15.—A quiet but pretty marriage took place last evening at 8:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Cumberland Street Methodist Church, when Miss Bessie Ewers and Mr. William Garrett, both of this city, were united.

Rev. Dr. W. G. Starr, pastor of the church, officiated, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett left at the conclusion of the ceremony for a bridal tour North.

Pingley—Stottler.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., September 15.—Harry E. Pingley, a prominent Fredericksburg county farmer, and Miss Evy Stottler, daughter of James Stottler, of the county, were married here this afternoon by the Rev. J. W. H. Beale, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Harris—Phillips.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., September 15.—Miss Lucy Estelle Phillips, daughter of P. P. Phillips, was married to-day to Robert Starr Harris, of this city, the ceremony taking place at the bride's home.

FOR RETAILING LIQUOR.
Third Arrest in Week Made in Fredericksburg County.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., September 15.—The third arrest within a week for selling liquor without license in the southwest section of Fredericksburg county was made about midnight last night by Sheriff Purcell, who arrested Randolph Himmilwright, of Pamlico Springs, just as the latter was about to retire for the night. Himmilwright was brought to Winchester and lodged in jail all to await the October grand jury when Thomas Sager and John Fiebel, distillers, now in jail, will also have their cases investigated.

Dances at the V. M. I.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, Va., September 15.—The hop committee at the Virginia Military Institute, composed of Cadets A. M. Owsley, H. J. Porter, T. M. Scott and D. R. McMillan, arranged two pleasant hops for Friday and Saturday night last. Both functions were brilliant affairs and were well attended. The Virginia Military Institute orchestra furnished music.

The couples dancing were Miss Danelia, with Cadet Brock; Miss Nash, with Cadet Jenkins; Miss Ingalls, with Cadet Dashiell; Miss Strother, with Cadet Alexander; Miss Davenport, with Cadet Saunders; Miss Geradiah, with Cadet McLean; Miss Preston, with Cadet Scott; Miss Haskins, with Mr. Grant; Miss Grammar, with Cadet Grammar; Miss McCulloch, with Captain Rugland; Miss Thom, with Cadet White; Miss Johnson, with Captain Owen; Miss M. Milnes, with Cadet Mahone; Miss Hopkins, with Cadet Miah; Miss Milnes, with Captain Campbell; Miss Craighill, with Cadet Alexander; Miss Donahauer, with Cadet Owsley; Miss Holmes, with Cadet Magruder; Miss Dingo, with Cadet Gilliam; Miss Caskie, with Cadet Jacobs; Miss Bradford, with Cadet Clemmer; Miss Powerell, with Cadet Anderson; Miss Apperson, with Cadet Payne; Miss McDonald, with Cadet Johnson.

The stages were Assistant Professors Marshall, Burroughs, McCredy, Davant, Pierson, Owen, Carter, Ex-Cadets Hancock, Doyle, Dashiell, Chamberlain, Grant, Roller and a large number of cadets.

The chapters were General and Mrs. E. W. Nichols, Captain and Mrs. J. W. Gilmore, Captain and Mrs. J. W. Gilmore, Captain and Mrs. J. H. Laird, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cowie, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Walker, Mrs. W. A. Roberts, Mrs. E. M. Pendleton, Mrs. W. C. Bell, Mrs. Perrin, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Geradiah and the Misses Fitchett.

Western—Justice.
DUNDAS, Va., September 15.—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Justice, the wedding of Mr. Charles Bradford Justice, of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Bessie Esau Justice, of Lunenburg, was solemnized at 3 o'clock this afternoon, the Rev. L. C. Moore officiating.

A number of friends of the contracting parties were in attendance.

Miss Viola Seward rendered the wedding march. The couple left for a Northern tour following the ceremony. Among the friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, of Narrows, Va.; Mr. G. C. Johnson, of West Virginia, and Misses Jessie and Mabel Justice, of Gray, Va.

Koolage—Hoss.
NORFOLK, Va., September 15.—Charles Wesley Koolage, Jr., junior member of the haberdashery firm of Hoss, Koolage & Co. and one of the best known young business men of Norfolk, left to-day for Cincinnati, where he will be married to Miss Anna Marie Boss, of Ingleside Place, Walnut Hills, that city. The wedding will be a social event in Cincinnati.

Mr. G. C. Johnson, of West Virginia, and Misses Jessie and Mabel Justice, of Gray, Va.

MAY GO TO ASYLUM.
Norfolk Authorities Ask Governor to Direct His Admission.

NORFOLK, Va., September 15.—The Federal government declined to take charge of Albert Gaddis, who went insane just after his discharge, and who is now in a deplorable condition at the city jail. Because of his violence he may be sent to a State asylum.

Today the authorities wrote Governor Swanson, explaining the situation and the man's condition, and asking for his admission to an asylum.

WANT MONEY REFUNDED.
Mecklenburg Supervisors at Odds With County Treasurer.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYDTON, Va., September 15.—A disagreement over responsibility for the loss of $15,000 of Mecklenburg county's funds has arisen between the members of the Board of Supervisors and the County Treasurer.

The sum was placed by the treasurer in the defunct Bank of Mecklenburg before the condition of that institution was announced.

Treasurer H. N. Beales claims that when he deposited the money he exercised his best judgment in safeguarding it. He claims to have had no knowledge of the condition of the bank at that time.

Apparently the supervisors hold Mr. Beales personally responsible for the sum. The matter may end in the courts.

Entertainment in Buchanan.
BUCHANAN, Va., September 15.—One of the most enjoyable parlor entertainments ever given here was held Friday night at the residence of Mrs. F. W. Steger in her spacious home on Main Street. The program consisted of instrumental and vocal music and readings, both classic and humorous.

The evening was in an unusually receptive mood, and each number was liberally applauded. Mr. W. C. Barker, in a humorous song, and Mrs. Frank R. Hannah, in a classical reading, were compelled to respond to repeated encores.

The committee of ladies, composed of Mesdames Frank R. Hannah, W. H. Carter and Miss Mary Rogers, who had the entertainment in charge, were warmly congratulated at the close upon its great success.
